

Waltham Democratic City Committee Meeting Minutes
09/18/2025
6:13-7:30 pm

Attendees:
Liz Aljammal Debbie Coleman Sean Durkee Andrew Fintzel	Deb Herman Susan Kramer Timothy Nolan Nancy Pratt

- The May 2025 minutes were approved. Future minutes will be posted to the website.
- Announcements
 - The “Journalism in Jeopardy” panel was changed to the Clark Government Center when Brandeis withdrew from the event.
 - No Kings Protest
 - 18-Oct-2025; 10:30a-12p
 - Waltham Common
- State Senator Mike Barrett addressed various important issues. As the government attempts to control the media, we should always follow the money. An important way to push back against the rise of federal power is to get involved in State and City government/committees. He is also very concerned about renewable energy projects cancelled by the President to increase the purchase of fossil fuels.
- MassCARE has invited us to co-sponsor a community forum “Solving the Healthcare Crisis: Medicare for All/Single Payer”. We are contacting MassCARE to better define what is entailed in sponsorship.
 - Waltham Public Library
 - 29-Oct-2025; 6:30p-8p
- Links for the following opportunities will be posted on the meeting event page/FB page
 - Katherine Clarke’s office is asking for support for VA & NJ Phone-banking to Elect Democrats.
 - Volunteer for the California Redistricting Campaign.
- Waltham Indivisible organized the Bridge Brigade on 25-Sep-2025
- Maura Healey: Sign up to be a Healey/Driscoll delegate at next year’s Democratic Convention.
- WDCC Heroes Nominations will start next month. We will officially open up nominations in October.
- Help needed:
 - Website: looking for coders to help update website
 - Social media: strategic social media requires writing, repetition, steady attention
 - List Development: Data entry and then enhance the data surveys
- Next Month’s Meeting

- 16-Oct-2025; 6-7p
 - Clark Government Center, 119 School St.
 - Candidates for Council-at-Large will be invited to speak.
- WDCG would like to thank the Building Department, Cindy Beaudreau, and the Custodial Services for their help.
